

AREA OVERVIEW

The "Twin Cities" of Minneapolis and St. Paul comprise a growing and vibrant metropolis with a diverse economic base, skilled labor pool and abundance of cultural and recreational opportunities that make it one of the most important commercial centers in the United States.

Twin Cities is the dominant financial, manufacturing, distribution and transportation center between Chicago and Seattle, which also makes it a singular magnet for regional talent unlike coastal metropolises in close proximities.

"No other place mixes affordability, opportunity, and wealth so well."

- The Atlantic, The Miracle of Minneapolis 2015

A DIVERSE & RESILIENT ECONOMY

The Twin Cities represents a broad range of industries. The employment base does not rely on any single industry, drawing its strength from a remarkably diverse business base and an economy that is "knowledge-based, globalized, entrepreneurial, IT-driven and innovation-based," according to Forbes. Such diversity enables this market to better weather recessions and economic downturns.

No single industry accounts for more than 20% of the total employment in the Twin Cities.

2025 PLAN: DOWNTOWN MINNEAPOLIS

In 2011, the Minneapolis Downtown Council, the city's business association for the CBD, announced its objectives for the city's next 15 years. The plan's initiatives stem from creating a "thriving, livable, connected, green, exciting and welcoming" Minneapolis through these action items:

- Double Minneapolis' residential population to 70,000 and emphasize offices on the north end of Nicollet Mall
- Invest in an arts and entertainment district between Nicollet, Hennepin, and First Avenue, attracting 5 million visitors annually
- Build Gateway Park, creating a grand connection between the CBD and the Riverfront.

SPOTLIGHT ST. PAUL CBD

Downtown St. Paul is a place where businesses prosper and workers and residents enjoy an unparalleled quality of life, creating a vibrancy of its own. Its urban fabric of corporate headquarters and retail, arts and entertainment, parks and history creates a unique global city on a livable scale.

The historic Capital city is building towards the future. 18,000 new jobs and nine new office buildings have been added in downtown St. Paul in the past 4 years — an investment equaling more than $650 million in construction costs alone. More than 72,000 workers are employed by nearly 1,200 companies, creating a workforce that maintains a sharp focus on current and emerging business needs.

The population of Downtown St. Paul has exploded in the last 10 years. More than 9,800 people live in the CBD, which is a ten-year growth rate of 102%! Since 2010, 2,548 apartments were constructed which is an increase of 70%.

Major attractions in Downtown St. Paul include Xcel Energy Center (home of the Minnesota Wild), Ordway Centre for Performing Arts, Science Museum of Minnesota, CHS Field (home of the St. Paul Saints) and the Minnesota Children's Museum; and events like the St. Paul Winter Carnival, which has been a tradition in Downtown St. Paul for more than 125 years.
